I have no war stories or KSP memories of Mr. Roberts. His bravery to our country and sacrifice to our Commonwealth preceded that of mine with the Commonwealth. I only wish to honor Mr. Roberts for his courage and commitment to both worthy causes. May his family find comfort in his passing and he RIP.

Uncle Sims was a boyhood hero to me and a national hero for his federal and state service. The last of the Greatest Generation of Roberts men. My memories of him are vivid and unforgettable. May he rest in peace knowing that he served his family, his nation and his Lord well. Our best to Aunt Shirley, Pattie, Rodney and the rest of the clan. Our thoughts and prayers are with you.

Sims was not just another veteran, to me he was my last living uncle and greatly influenced me to choose a military career. He was part of a generation that made the greatest contribution to our country and gave future generations a world far better than his generation inherited. Like the ending of an old poem, "Our country is in mourning, a veteran died today". Robert E. Roberts, SFC U.S. Army Retired
