

Carolyn Brisby Mason

December 22, 1932 - October 20, 2018

Funeral services for Carolyn B. Mason, 85, of Frankfort will be 11:00 a.m. Wednesday at LeCompte Johnson Taylor Funeral Home with Dr. Robert Browning officiating. Burial will follow at Frankfort Cemetery. Visitation will be 5:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. Tuesday at the funeral home.

Carolyn was born December 22, 1932 to Grace Elizabeth Culver and Richard Anderson Brisby in Smith Mills, Kentucky and when she was nine years old, moved to Union County. She graduated from Morganfield High School in 1951 and began work at South Central Bell.

In 1953, she met the love of her life, Tom Pryor Mason, as he returned from his duty in the Korean war. They married in 1954 and had three sons in the next thirteen years. They were married for sixty-two years. Tom's job took him to Bowling Green and then to Frankfort with the Department of Transportation in 1966. In 1973 Carolyn became the secretary to the counselors at Franklin County High School, retiring after 24 years.

Mrs. Mason's family was involved in First Baptist Church where she taught Sunday School for thirty-five years. Her church and family were the most important things in her life. Her love of God and family took first place.

Carolyn loved playing bridge, doing needle work, walking and traveling. She was an avid sports fan, especially where her children were concerned. She loved U.K. and the Boston Red Sox.

Ms. Mason was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, Tom, and nine brothers and sisters. Survivors include her three sons, Rick (Diane), of Frankfort, Clay (Jane), of Lawrenceburg, and Stephen (Lara) Mason, of Frankfort; grandchildren, Thomas Cary, Lucas Pryor, Zachary Clay, Marjorie Grace, James Anderson (Kendal), Hallee Elizabeth, and Stephen Parks Mason; brother, Prentice (Libby) Brisby, of Morganfield; and sister, Frances (Billy) Morris, of Owensboro.

Pallbearers will be her seven grandchildren. Flowers are appreciated, but memorial contributions may be made to the Mission Frankfort Clinic at First Baptist Church, 201 St. Clair Street, Frankfort, KY, 40601. You may share memories or leave condolences at www.ljtfuneralhome.com.

“ Heaven has gained another angel from First Baptist Church. What a wonderful lady and faithful servant! She will be missed but not forgotten.

“ Carolyn Mason will forever be remembered by the Lovan family. Although we did not know her for many years, we felt her friendship and warmth immediately upon meeting her. Dwight and I went to church on a Wednesday evening (feeling a little out of place) and we were immediately called over to the table by Carolyn Mason and were introduced to everyone at her table. She had roots back in western Kentucky and we were from Owensboro. That was all it took to be fully embraced by this woman of God. I loved her the minute I met her. She had a genuine personality and as she tried to tell us about her family, it didn't take long for us to realize that it included about half the church and some of the best young men and women serving God as she taught them to do. Leaders aren't just born, they are taught those skills by loving parents and Carolyn and Tom taught their boys well. The entire Mason family holds a special place in the heart of our church family. As Ms. Carolyn leaves this earthly home, she is fully embraced by her Lord and Savior with Tom close by waiting for his turn. She lived a life well loved and leaves a legacy of Christian followers and servant leaders. She was a lovely lady and she will be missed by all who knew her.

With love and sympathy,
Dwight and Beverly Lovan
