“ Dana is my brother-in-law(my wonderful brother) I will never forget Dana ,he is one of the finest human beings anyone could ever meet. Dana was the most honest and straight forward person, a wonderful addition to our family, we were so very blessed to be a part of his life. I have some wonderful memories of Dana, but the one that means the most is that he was a Christian, My brother endured unto the end, I believe he has received a crown in heaven...now my beloved brother (rest on in heaven) I will never forget you, I love you Dana Lewis!

“ My uncle was one of the most wonderful people that i had ever known in my life, we never got to spend a lot of time together during the past few years due to the fact that he and his family had relocated, the last 2 months i have traveled back and forth to see him, just so that he knew that i loved him and cared, I really hope with all my heart that he knew how much i loved him and what a special person he is to me,
Uncle Dana and aunt Sharon have always been an inspiration to me, I long to have the kind of love that they shared with each other, for i find someone to be very fortunate if they are loved the way that they loved each other,
I just want to say that i love and miss you uncle....

“ The memories that I have of Bro. Lewis will be with me the rest of my life. First met him at a gospel meeting years ago. Been to his Perry County home many times. He could not of married a better wife than Sharon, one of the best cooks in the country. I remember their black dog, name Suzzie. The fun game we played called Pit. Some have long life upon this earth and some are shorter. Whether short or long, we should always be ready to leave, because tomorrow is never promised for no one. I believe it was Paul that said "do all we can to stand". Dana has finished his course no more fighting the evil one. I know Dana's message to me would be keep on fighting and to do all you can to stand against the evil one. I have hope that I will meet this Bro. Lewis again one day. When we come visiting the Lewis's in Perry county, he was waiting for us to get there and ready to beat me at playing horseshoes. I am thinking him and JD beat me and Robert every game. There more memories I have of Bro. Lewis and there family. There mine to keep the rest of my life. Thank you God for my memories and Bro. Lewis.

“ Larry and I have known Dana and his family for many years. We have had many good times together and Dana will be missed by us so very much. Dana was a very humble, kind, loving, and compassionate person. He was a great asset to the church. Every month, we looked forward to Dana, Sharon and family coming to the Georgetown Church of Christ for Dana to bring another excellent lesson from God’s word to encourage and help us to be better Christians. Dana and Sharon always loved to share vegetables from their wonderful garden with everyone. We, also, have had many delicious meals in their home and at other gatherings. We asked Dana if he would like to go to Claudia Sander’s for some good country cooking and he replied: “Why would I want to go there when I have the best cook here?” We would not take anything for our last time together on December 9, 2014, when we went to Applebee’s in Frankfort with Dana and Sharon. We know Dana had to be pushing himself, but we took pictures and enjoyed being together, all the time knowing it could be our last. Our hearts are grieving with Sharon and all the family. May God bless and comfort all of Dana’s family and friends.

With our love and prayers, Larry & Janice Pulliam

“ A fond memory of Dana for our family is when he would visit on the second Sunday at Georgetown Church of Christ. We always looked forward to seeing him and Sharon and hearing him preach the word of God. You could tell Dana knew the scripture and felt passionate about spreading the truth. We grieve for his loss and the family but take comfort knowing he was a member of the body of Christ.
