

Gerald Sims

January 22, 1948 - February 21, 2019

Gerald Sims, 71, of Frankfort died early Thursday morning at Frankfort Regional Medical Center. A native of Lexington, Gerald graduated from Lexington Catholic High School. He and his wife, Elaine, made their home there the first few years of their fifty-one-year marriage while he worked for the State Highway Dept. and Rainbo Bread Co.

They moved to Frankfort in 1975 to open a Sunoco station. After several years in the service station business, Gerald and Elaine bought the Dixie Cream Donut Shops and ran that as their family business for twenty-five years. Since then, they continued in businesses in Frankfort with Elaine's Hallmark and Adelia's Café. Besides being a long-time member of the Frankfort business community, he was also a member of Good Shepherd Catholic Church.

Gerald is preceded in death by his parents, Forrest Cherryholmes and Anthony Sims; and one sister, Carolyn Sims Spickard. Survivors include his wife, Elaine Sims; son, Christopher Sims; daughter, Stephanie Sims; and brother, Anthony "Tony" Sims.

Mass will be held 11:00 a.m. Monday morning at Good Shepherd Catholic Church in Frankfort. There will be a gathering of family and friends from 1:00 p.m. until 4:00 p.m. Sunday at LeCompte Johnson Taylor Funeral Home and Monday from 10:00 a.m. until service time at the church.

Honorary pallbearers will be Randy Maupin, Keith Sims, Steve Watkins, Vernon Sims, Bruce McKneely, and Anthony Sims. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to Society of St. Vincent de Paul, P.O. Box 571, Frankfort, Kentucky 40602-0571. “ Sweets to the sweet; from someone sweet... That was many days on WFKY a dozen delicious Dixie Creme Donuts to the "be kind to person of the day". Wonderful memories flood my mind working with Gerald and Elaine in promoting their various business ventures. Surely his way to heaven was paved with honesty, good deeds, truth and service to his fellowman! Gerald will be missed by me among many others.

“ I can't believe that the last time I saw you was on your wedding day. You were always so special to me. You and Keith would come to Louisville and pal around with Linda and me, it made our teen years so much fun. I am just now realizing how much of my family I've missed since I've been away. You will always be in my heart. Until we meet again Love you

“ Cuz, you were always my favorite cousin, in fact I always thought of you more as my brother. We were practically inseparable as youngsters but the nuns at St. Paul’s learned pretty quickly to keep us as far apart as possible. Our folks used to refer to us as Jewel and Mike because we reminded them of two brothers from the “country” who were apparently severely lacking in common sense. We got into our share of trouble, but none so serious that we couldn’t tell our own children or laugh about in later years. How I loved to recall those times with you even though you always remembered me as being the instigator. I will dearly miss those opportunities to jog my memory but I can take solace in knowing you are now with the saints in heaven. I love you Brother!

“ Gerald and Elaine are wonderful examples of the way a Catholic Christian couple should be. Gerald was always in church, showing faith, respect, and trust in God even when it was obvious he did not feel well. Gerald and Elaine were always welcoming and friendly to everyone, and loving parents to Stephanie and Chris. They showed devotion and love in everyday life and for many years were always together in church setting a beautiful loving example for all of us. It was a blessing to have made the acquaintance of such a good, kind, intelligent, understanding man. Gerald will be missed by many of us.

“ Heaven gained a very special Angel when Gerald left his earthly home. He was a shining example of faith, family, love, compassion, and good times. I will dearly miss him on my trips back to Kentucky, but I know he is pain free, and surrounded with love from all our family who were waiting for him.
Loving thoughts, prayers, and hugs for Elaine, Chris, and Stephanie as they continue their journey

“ My Uncle Gerald was one of the kindest men I ever knew. He always had a smile and a kind word for everyone he met. With his passing, the world is a little dimmer and Heaven is a little brighter. Thoughts, prayers, and love to his family as they mourn his passing, but celebrate his life.

“ Gerald, you know how much I LOVE YOU & YOUR FAMILY! Adelia's was my "time out" treat to myself, where I had great food (California Wrap), silence for meditation, or fun talks with you, Elaine & Chris (Stephanie was working hard @ GSS or GSC). I keep picturing you & Elaine with Pat & Bill, and times they had family members @ Adelia's that included my precious grandsons Matthew & Christian. When you see my Mom and son Kyle in Heaven, tell them I miss them 24/7. Hugs, Angela

“ Paradies gained an Amazing man.. Gerald was a most exceptional person we have ever known. Jimmy and I will greatly miss him. Our prayers are with all the family and friends. Gerald you are gonna be so greatly missed. But I rejoice that you're free of this earthly Vessel. We love you so much and your family. Jimmy and I are here 24/7 if you need us. Much love to Elaine and family. Gentle hugs
