“ Hazel was my aunt by marriage, married to my father's only brother. As a young girl, I thought she had the most beautiful shoes and delighted in trying them on. She had sooo many. One summer she decided I could cook lunch for Uncle Roy and Bill and Shorty. They worked on the farm and grew tired of bologna sandwiches every day. I think my cooking lasted a week. Also, I tried my hand at beautician. Hazel let me perform my skills on her every week and she was always very complimentary. Needless to say, I became a busy teenager and that ended. Hazel was generous. Those things stand out most in my memory.

“ In my memories of Hazel and Roy was when we had sunrise service on the Farm and a big breakfast. The food was so great. We used to see Hazel and Shorty at Frisch eating dinner. One of Mom & Dad's close friends and fellow church members. I am sorry for your lost. Like I have learned is I had Mother & Dad for a long time too. Be blessed with that thought. She has gone to a better place.
