

Richard Lee Cox

July 6, 1927 - November 4, 2013

Richard "Dick" Cox of Ashwood Place in Frankfort, Kentucky passed away peacefully on November 4, 2013 from complications of Alzheimer's disease. He retired from the Farmer's Home Administration in Sullivan, IN and was a WWII veteran who served in the Navy.

Dick married Martha E. Spaulding in 1954. They were fortunate enough to recently celebrate their 59th wedding anniversary. They previously resided in Sullivan, IN where they raised their family but moved to Frankfort, KY several years ago to live near their daughter, Nancy Ault. Dick and Martha spent many years together traveling throughout the United States with their children in tow. He was a family man who loved to fish and camp and shared his love of nature with his children and grandchildren.

He is survived by wife, Martha E. Spaulding Cox, Frankfort; son Daniel Wayne Cox, Cripple Creek, CO; two daughters Nancy Cox Ault, Frankfort and Linda Cox Nath, Colorado Springs, CO; six grandchildren and two great grandchildren. He is preceded in death by his son, James Allen Cox.

He will be missed greatly by his family and friends who knew him well and appreciated his gentle spirit and dry wit.

Private services will be held at a later date. LeCompte-Johnson-Taylor is in charge of arrangements. Guestbook@ljtfuneralhome.com
