“ I loved your mother. In the 13 years I have been taking library books to her, we had come to be dear friends. We had so many wonderful talks during our monthly visits. Your mother was a true Christian lady, but with a delightfully wicked sense of humor

“ My very deepest sympathies to each of you. It saddened me to hear of Ruth's death, I thought so highly of her. I will never forget the many times Ruth visited my mother in the nursing home. She retained her Christian benevolence and displayed love to her
