“ Wilma and I were colleagues in IAAP (and future versions) for several years, within the Kentucky Division, and were roommates at the International Convention in Phoenix one year. We had a grand time together, and, as at all our meetings and conventions, sharing professional tips and experiences was the best. What a force we all were in business, so appreciated and so validated and valued. Nice to look back on a success story. Wilma's passing seems right, as the remembrances here indicate she stayed in the game to the end. Good job!--Jo Anne Warren CPS, CAP, and all that, Cincinnati Chapter.

“ Wilma and I go back a long, long way. I met Wilma through the secretaries association (NSA, PSI and now IAAP). Wilma had served as International Director of the Southeast District many, many years ago. We had kept in touch all of these years. For years, I sent her the White House Christmas ornament, and she sent me a box of candy (it looked like chocolate, it tasted like chocolate, but it really wasn't chocolate). I talked with her a year or two ago once she moved to assisted living.

Wilma was a lovely, gracious lady and a dedicated member of IAAP. She had quite a sense of humor as well. At one Southeast District Conference around Halloween when it was suggested that the members "dress up" in costume for the opening reception, Wilma came as Forrest Gump with a box of Whitman Chocolates for her purse.

I last saw Wilma in 2009 when attending the Kentucky Derby. We spent a good part of a day with Wilma in Frankfurt, then to Keeneland to see the race track and the horse country, a very nice lunch and even a tour of the Wild Turkey distillery. She was in fine form that day; we had many laughs together. She enjoyed showing off her area. She worked "forever" at Investors Heritage, a job she really loved.

My sincere sympathy to Terry and other family members during this time. Wilma was a unique individual; she will be missed. It was my pleasure to call her a friend.

Most sincerely,

“ Wilma and her Mother, Gertrude, were neighbors of mine for many years - not only neighbors but sisters in Christ at Evergreen Baptist Church. Wilma was also my Sunday School teacher (AND A VERY GOOD ONE), and a very passionate worker in our WMU group. I will treasure the times we shared! Gertrude, on the other hand, kept me in check when it came to my yard (especially dealing with my dandelions) and sharing her flowers with me. Could not have asked for better neighbors and friends. Several years ago, Wilma asked me to be her roommate on her trip to Hawaii with other friends of hers. I was so excited! We shared so much about our lives and laughed at each other until we were in pain. Will Miss Her! Joyce Combs

“ My mentor and friend. I will rejoice that your earth journey has concluded and that you are beginning your heavenly journey with God. You were such a positive role model in IAAP and real life. Such a wise and knowing soul who was happy to promote the positive in others. Until we meet again, sweet friend.....

“ Wilma was one incredible lady! She gave new meaning to Southern Lady and was an inspiration to all who came into contact with her. From the tip of her head to the bottom of her feet, she was always impeccably groomed and ready for professional action. I had the pleasure of being acquainted with Wilma through my association with IAAP and will never forget her humor and wisdom. The profession has lost the consummate professional and we have lost a dear friend. Her memory will live on in those whose lives she touched.
