“ Life for Ann, is but a stopping place. A pause in what's to be. A resting place along the road, to sweet eternity. We all have different journeys. Different paths along the way. Left behind are hearts-of-love from Ann's sharing with us. Whether, it her daughter's, son's, sister's, brother's, grandchildren or friends. We all have been touch and gifted many things, But never was she meant to stay...Ann's destination is a place far greater than we know. For some the journey's been quicker, for some the journey's slow. And now her earthly journey finally ends, she'll claim her great reward...find everlasting peace together with the Lord. For families left behind their loss is hard to imagine. Some of Ann's children and grandchildren have lost both parents and grandparents in less than a year. Their parents taught them everything...but, to live without them. Ann had big heart... Bless all the family and love them.
