

Ms. Ann Hall Taylor

May 19, 1937 - June 13, 2014

Ann Hall Taylor, 77, of Frankfort, KY passed away at UK Medical Center on June 13, 2014. She leaves to cherish her memory her devoted friend and caregiver, John S. Mathis, Sr., a niece, Liz Clark, a nephew, Allen Hall, special friend B.J. Doss and many other friends. She was a lovely Christian lady who loved her Lord, her South Frankfort Presbyterian Church family and her many friends. She had a great sense of humor and was fun to be around. She was a professor of sociology at the University of Kentucky for eleven years. She was also with the Kentucky Bureau of Public Assistance for eleven years and was a director of many of the programs offered. She was kind, benevolent, caring, talented and highly intelligent. She had written several poems, which had been published, and a short book on Dyslexia. She is preceded in death by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Connis Hall, of Hartford, KY. She was a graduate of Centre College and held a Master of Science in Social Work from the Kent School of Social Work at the University of Louisville. Funeral services will be Monday, June 16 at 12:30 p.m. at LeCompte Johnson Taylor Funeral Home, 1725 Louisville Road, Frankfort, KY 40601. Visitation will be held prior to the service at 10:30 a.m. to service time. Expressions of sympathy should be sent to South Frankfort Presbyterian Church, 224 Steel Street, Frankfort, KY 40601, or your favorite charity in memory of Ann Hall Taylor. “ I recall fondly the time Ann was my field instructor when I was working on my masters in social work at UK. Since the group were involved in government placements we often had class time at her funny little log cabin on the hill overlooking the Ky river and the capitol. I also had the pleasure of a visit with her parents in Hartford when I journeyed to Green River ADD to do some research. They were as gracious and fun as Ann. My sympathies to all those who were close to her.

Ann and I were close friends in high school and memories of her wonderful personality and smile will always be in my heart. I know she will be missed by all of her friends and to them, I extend my deepest sympathy.
