“ I grew up with Tony (TNT) Johnson. We lived in the same neighborhood. We all played backyard football and other sports together. I think he would also think it was a great time in our lives. I believe we were all close and great friends. I sorry that we have not seen each other for a few years but when we did it was like we never been apart. We will all miss him.

To my best friend we love you

“ I just found out this morning that one of my closest friends growing up has passed. I am just at a loss for words. We talked so much at school and since we shared the same last name we were always in homeroom together. He had such a contagious smile and personality. I had forgotten that we called him Fred until I saw it on another post, and that made me smile through the tears. We grew up together in the same neighborhood and were only a street away from each other and spent many days walking the streets, laughing or just talking on the phone. Tony my dear friend I will forever miss your laugh and smile and I wish you eternal peace. Prayers to his wife, children and grandchildren ❤️

“ My heart is breaking for Tony's family. He was always had a smile and a kind greeting whenever I saw him at Evergreen Market. He looked like he was always getting ready to get into some kind of trouble. :) I remember Tony (Fred) when we were all in school together. He used to hang out at Verma and Harold Boggs' house growing up, and relentlessly picked and joked with all there. God Bless this kind man, and Prayers for comfort and peace to his family.

“ As I sit here crying my eyes out just hurting from the loss and shock...
I will miss you so bad..you were a rock for me everyday for so long..you always made me laugh and feel better. .gave the best bear hugs and you were always positive...always helping..
I'll never make another breakfast burrito that you won't b there with me...
I always got on you for telling everybody you could that I always beat you up when we were little and played together..you loved to tell that...I would give anything to hear you tell that again..
Thank you Lord for giving me this special person in my life..
RIP Cuz..I love you and will forever miss you..
