

Barbara Lynn Giles

February 26, 1942 - March 15, 2025

Barbara Lynn Giles, 83, passed away on Saturday, March 15, 2025. Barbara was born in Scott County, Kentucky on February 26, 1942, to the late Porter and Grace Lynn. Barbara graduated from Scott County High School in Georgetown and made her home in Frankfort, Kentucky where she lived for almost 60 years.

Barbara, in her younger years, loved to play tennis and run. It wasn't uncommon for her and friends to run up to 7 miles at a time. She also loved to fish, and many times out fished her great fisherman husband, Don. She worked in KY state government and finished her career as occupational tax collector for Franklin County. After retirement her and Don loved to travel and spend several months of winter in Florida fishing. In her later years, she spent time reading and working puzzles. Fondly known as "Granny and Grand Barbie", she was a strong, independent woman for her generation. Her example helped shape her children and grandchildren. She was a member of Capital City Christian Church.

Barbara is survived by her children Davis (Suzette) Hahn, Grace (Keith) Dotson, Kathy Henderson, and Julie (Chuck) Jackson. Four grandchildren: Isaac, Kemper, Daniel and Kendyl, and three great grandchildren: Eli, Shaelyn & Lilyiana. She is also survived by her five siblings. She was preceded in death by her husband Don.

Graveside services will be held at noon on Monday, May 5, 2025, at the Frankfort Cemetery.
