“ I remember him playing football for FCHS. He was a senior. I was a freshman. He was as strong as an ox. He really gave it his all...every practice and every game. God, do i remember those pads popping when he hit someone. It would make you step back that's for sure.

“ I wish to express my sincere sympathy and condolence to you in this time of sadness. I've lost a spouse myself, and I certainly relate to the thoughts and feelings that go with this situation. You can take comfort in the knowledge that our Heavenly Father always takes care of His people, particularly in the most difficult times and circumstances. My prayers go out to you.

“ My beloved cousin (and raised as a brother). The Lord above knows you were blessed with many that loved you. At last you are home with Aunt Jean and our blood family that loved you as no one else could possibly have done. I am so glad you were able to call and tell me goodbye just a few days ago. My life will never, ever, be the same - but you are free now. Finally, you are able to rest in peace. You are a gem among many jewels. I cannot wait to be reunited with you. I love you. Elaine
