“ The Kendall family sure did thank a lot of Calvin. I hadn't seen him for too many years and the last time I did was with my Daddy (Oakley “Mac” Kendall), I do remember a lot of laughing going on 😊 God Speed Calvin, Tell my Daddy Hello when you get there ❤️

“ Smile....that's always was my feeling when I think about Calvin. It's not just the good memories of Calvin having a smile on his face when he saw you but the joy one felt when hearing his voice and laugh as you were approaching a group he was in. It will be easy to remember Calvin. Thank God he gave us Calvin to enrich our lives. My sympathy to Judy and the whole family.

“ Calvin was a very special man, he was like a brother to my dad and uncle. He was one you could depend on and loved to make you laugh. I loved to hear him sing, and Judy play the piano at Lebanon.

One can not think of Calvin without a smile on their face. I can see him in Heaven now with his parents, brother and sister, along with my aunts, uncle, grand parents, my mom and dad, and my first husband Darryl. I'm sure it's like a Chism-Montfort Reunion in Heaven and oh the laughter.
Love you Calvin, rest in peach our friend
