

Carol Jean Pittman

October 2, 1947 - August 24, 2017

Carol Jean Kidd Pittman, 69, Crab Orchard, KY, died Thursday morning at Ephraim McDowell Regional Medical Center, Danville.

Carol was born in Georgetown, KY. Shortly thereafter, her parents, Tom and Myrtle Brown Kidd, moved to Lincoln County where she attended Crab Orchard High and lived the rest of her life.

First and foremost, Carol was a devoted and supportive mother to sons, Scottie L. and Larry Ray Pittman. She had two grandchildren, Ryan and Candice Pittman. She also had two fur babies, her beloved dogs, Prissy and Cassie. She was a member of New Hope First Church of God and loved music and singing. She was self-employed as a housekeeping contractor. She was a fun loving, determined, goal oriented woman who approached everything at full speed. She loved gardening and researched each item before planting then admired the finish of abundant harvest.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her siblings, Paul Ray Kidd, Thomas Kidd, Jr. and Helen Brown.

There will be a Celebration of Life service at a later date.

“ So sorry Scott and Larry Ray for the loss of your mother. Hadn't seen Carol Jean in quite some time but have quite a few memories of us together when i was younger. I remember when Grandma and Grandpa owned the store there in Broughtontown and there would be a good size crowd come in on weekends and they would all play volleyball til way up in the morning hours seems like. I would watch Larry Ray, who only was around a year old the, for Carol Jean and for payment for my services I would get to either get a good cold pop or an ice cream for babysitting. lol. I sure loved watching him though and loved getting those treats for doing so. Her picture is so pretty of her. Sad though cause she was the last one of moms family. Oh, by the way, I am Helens daughter Barbara. I will be praying for all of you. Love my family.

“ I have a ton of memories of course, but I think my favorite memories involve how excited mom was anytime she opened gifts. I absolutely loved watching her eyes light up opening a Christmas present. And she often had something funny to say like....."Hmmm, well I've never for wine on Christmas before," or "Boy, now I have something to put all this money I have in now," as she opened a new purse.
