

Carolyn Munson Rodgers

May 11, 1933 - July 26, 2022

Carolyn Munson Rodgers, 89, widow of Orville K. Rodgers, passed away on Tuesday, July 26, 2022.

She was born in Frankfort, Kentucky on May 11, 1933 to the late Annie Elizabeth (Betsy) Richardson and Everett Byron Munson.

Carolyn retired from the U.S Department of Agriculture where she became the first woman cattle inspector in Kentucky. She also retired from Kentucky State Government after working 15 years, mostly in the Governor's Office for Policy and Management.

One of Carolyn's favorite past times was to play cards with her "Flying Solo" card club. She also had a beautiful voice and was asked to sing at many weddings and other events. In the past few years, she helped lead singing at Morning Pointe where she resided. Carolyn was a sweet, kind-hearted lady who always had a smile.

Carolyn is survived by her sons David K. Rodgers (Debbie) and Jonathan G. Rodgers, both of Frankfort, and her sister Sara Nell Ford of St. Petersburg, Florida. Her grandchildren are Kevin Rodgers (Amanda) of Shelbyville, Matt Rodgers (Candice) of Lexington, Greg Rodgers (Jennie) of Charleston, WV, and Anna Rodgers of Frankfort. She also has seven great-grandchildren and one great-great granddaughter. In addition to her husband, Orville, she was preceded in death by her youngest son, Mark E. Rodgers, and seven brothers and sisters.

Visitation will be held at LeCompte Johnson Taylor Funeral Home in Frankfort beginning at 11:00 am on Monday, August 1, 2022. The funeral will follow at 1:00 PM, with burial following in the Bagdad Cemetery.

The family requests that all visitors and family wear masks while inside the funeral home due to the rising Covid-19 numbers. Thank you.

“ Debbie and David, please accept my condolences for your loss. It's never easy to give up our parents, and can be harder when it's your mom. You and your family will be in my prayers.
