Frank was a devoted son, father, brother, cousin, nephew, and friend. He is survived by his son, Zachary Salchli, (Ashley) , of Bowling Green , his daughter Stephanie S. Hukill,(Darren), of Frankfort and his sister, Melissa Salchli,(Scott) of Cincinnati, OH. He was preceded in death by his father, Charles Franklin Salchli Sr and his mother, Myrtle Ann Grigsby Salchli. Frank was a devoted father and grandfather also survived by his granddaughters, Adalynn and Harper, and his grandson, Grayson.

Frank retired from state government Department of Information Technology and was an avid lover of music, sports, and UK, Frank could be seen often strolling downtown, cheering on the Cats, playing the net during a tennis match, or laughing it up at the concert series. Having never met a stranger, Frank's warm smile and contagious laughter will forever be remembered in all those he came across. Though he will be greatly missed, his large presence in so many lives will live on in those memories of corny jokes and goofy dance moves. Frank was truly one of a kind and he will be in our hearts forever and always.

“ I have so many memories but some I can't tell. One of my favorites was we watched lots of PeeWee Herman when the kids were young. Our favorite was this one and we did it together even recently in the voice of the characters. "Dirty Dog Ain't Lying, going to a Laua and it's totally Hawaiiin". Every memory consisted of lots of laughter. You were the love of my life. Can't grasp that you are gone, I'm lost without you. My heart is truly broken. Prayers for our kids and grandkids. I'll do my best to keep them safe and happy. Love you.

I am a neighbor and saw him walking the neighborhood...always ready with a smile and a wave. When I walked too and we met on the street he was ready with a funny comment and the times we stopped for a chat was to share info on our children and grands. He was surely proud of his I will remember his friendly waves. God bless you all. - Becky Shipp
