“ I got to know Charlotte when her daughter Debbie and my son David became a couple and later married. Charlotte was one of the sweetest ladies I've ever had the blessing of calling my friend. Through all her health difficulties she stayed strong and determined to live her life as best she could. I just hope I was able to make it a little better for her. I am happy to say I know she is finished with her trials here and is happy and healthy and strong and I look forward to one day being her friend on the other side as I was here.
