“ I remember when I first met you, when you moved on 1st Avenue the street behind me and became friends and you gave me those tennis shoes ❤️ Then you moved away and years later came back and ended up getting a job where I was working at. We ended up right where we left off great friends!! We have spent a lot of awesome times together from going to concerts, male review (which was by chance with Robert lol) too just you coming and staying the weekends with me. I will never forget your kind heart and that sweet smile that would make anyone feel better 😘 I am so thankful for meeting you and the friendship that we had, you will always be in my heart and memories forever ❤️❤️❤️❤️

“Christie , my dear precious best friend and roommate... I love you so very much and feel so blessed to have the time and memories with you that I did. Your smile will forever be the most beautiful smile I have even known. Your sense of humor and quick wit were one of my favorite things about you. We shared so many amazing times and had so much we were looking forward to. Your precious girls will forever be your biggest accomplishment and source of pride for you. I will always be there for them in the way that will honor you the most. I will forever miss you my friend. Thank you for always being my friend. 💙🧡
