“ Curt was such a blessing to our Keystone class. Great smile and sense of humor. I remember his telling the class about giraffes eating shingles off his house here in Frankfort. :) After recent eye surgery I am not to get out until the doctor lets me. “ I have so many memories...I think I knew Clarence longer than even his family members. He was just a few months older than I and we lived within a block of each other from birth until high school...part of that time, we were next door neighbors...then we###imported-begin###Patti & RussellGlenn###imported-end###
