“ Clyde will be greatly missed by his Bridgeport Church family.

“ Clyde Smith was a dear friend and neighbor of mine . He was part of one of the most respected families in Franklin County, They not only adhered to honest and hard work but were frugal business farmers to no end.

Clyde owned the best car that he openly shared with friends as we traveled out of town most often to Lexington where we enjoyed movies and parks. He always stopped at his uncle's service station in Versailles to fill his tank whereby he announced what each of us owed.

He was a staunch sober person and when invited me to attend the barbershop's outing , of which he was a member, at the local distillery, each table had a bottle placed in the center which he promptly displaced to my disappointment.

sadly, I fondly remember our good times
