“ I remember the first time I met u and it was on a school bus in lawrenceburg ky. I was about 7 and u was about 10. Well u would always try to pass my seat up and head to the back of the bus and everytime I would grab u by the back of ur jacket and yank u right back into my seat. And then u started staying at my house all the time with my older brother and well you ultimately became my other older brother. Dave over the years we all sorta grew apart but we all seemed to find each other again when ever we really needed one another. I love u big brother and it hurt so damn bad to think of a world that just a lil bit colder without u in it . I'm so sorry ur gone and I hate that your boys are grieving and I wish I could take all that pain away and make everything right again. I really just want to wake up and someone say that it was all just a nightmare. I missin big bro and I love u to rest easy and fly high till we meet again. And play some qtrs in heaven . Lol god I miss them days and I miss you big bro. And I love ya to.
