“ David Edward Stanfield was my brother. He was a sweet, kind, loving child. He had a passion for animals. Our backyard found itself to be the final resting place for a vast array of pets, strays, and other animals. He loved to sing and had a beautiful voice as a child. David was an avid photographer and had photos on display at Schumann Click Clinic, Louisville, for years. He loved camping, fishing, hunting and the violin. He wanted to play piano and I regret that I didn't have enough time to teach him. He had so many good traits that he kept hidden for the most part. He will be sorely missed. Rest in Peace Dave. No more torment, pain, and tragedy. Love, Sharon
