“ My hope is that Debbie is running with her pups in heaven right now. I will miss her laugh. She was a good friend.

Thank you, Heather. Debbie really missed her friends after having to retire. She really did enjoy the people she worked with and cherished their friendship.

“ Debbie's heart was with homeless shelter pets and over the years we spoke about many and I enjoyed the stories and nicknames for her adopted dogs, like wiggle butt. Even though her health and finances were stressed she always made sure the needs of her furbabies were met. It broke her heart to have to place her 2 dogs when she retired due to her health. It shows how strong she was to make a sacrifice of the heart to loose her companions for their best interest even though she would be lonely. You made a difference in several lives Debbie. With great respect, love Jeanine.

“ Broke my heart to learn of Debbie's death. I hate that she didn't get to enjoy her retirement for long. Plus I'm sorry the current state of politics in our country upset Debbie to no end! I know she was looking forward to voting this November.

Condolences to the family. R.I.P., Debbie.
