

Deloras Tackett Rose

June 10, 1932 - June 10, 2009

Deloras Tackett Rose

An angel who walked on earth is now in her Heavenly home.

She was born June 10, 1932 to the late Lent & Annie Osborne Tackett. To mourn her loss on earth she leaves two loving daughters who cared for her until God's call; Mona Kaye Burke (Carl) & Dianne Newsom (Thurman), also a sister, Pearlie, and one brother, Roman. She had 12 grandchildren, 22 great grandchildren and one great great grandchild. In addition, "just like sisters" Connie Tackett and Hazel June Newsom who stuck with her through thick and thin until the end.

She was preceded in death by her very loving husband William Walker Rose Jr. (coal-miner), five children Eddie, Pat, Sheliah, Rosemary, & Tony, two sisters Aurora & Myrtle, one brother, Bill, a half-sister Mellie Akers and a half brother Rex..

She was baptized in 1976 in the Dorton Creek by her father-in-law, Rev. Walker Rose Sr. & Rev. Reuben Baker. She was a faithful member of the Dorton Old Regular Baptist Church. She was so very humble throughout her sickness from the dreadful disease, Cancer.

She lived her whole life in a way that let her light shine to her children and all who knew her. We certainly feel in our hearts that our loss is Heavens gain. Maw-Maw's smile that could light up a room & her soft voice are sweet memories left for us to remember always.

Her last week of life on earth was within the St. Joseph Hospice Care Center at Lexington, KY. Mona, Dianne & grand-daughter Ricki Lynn stayed in her room the whole week.

Eight family members were at her side as she peacefully fell into the arms of Jesus at 2:35pm on June 12, two days after her 77th birthday.

Deloras's family would like to extend heartfelt thanks to all the wonderful people of the Hospice Center & to Katy Williams – her Hospice caregiver while at home in Frankfort.

Visitation will begin at 6:00 p.m. Monday at North Frankfort Baptist Church with all night visitation and continue until the funeral service begins at 1:00 p.m. Tuesday.

Her request for an old regular Baptist church service will be fulfilled by her son-in-law, the Rev. Carl Burke of Frankfort & her nephew the Rev. James Tackett of Dorton, KY. A Monday night church service will begin at 6:30pm Monday.

Prior to her funeral service son-in-law Tony Newsome will sing per her request "The Great Judgement Morning." His son Lowell will sing "When God Comes and Gathers His Jewels," then grandson Travis York will read a eulogy he wrote for her and sing one last song for his grandmother. Lastly, son-in-law Thurman will attempt to tell how her son-in-laws shared such a wonderful Mother-In-Law.

Pallbearers will be grandsons and son-in-laws. Burial will be in Bethel Church Cemetery. Flowers are welcome or a donation to North Frankfort Baptist Church, Hospice of the Bluegrass or a charity of ones choice.

“ Most of my memories of Deloras are from when they lived in Midway. Whenever I walked in their house it seemed that there was always something good cooking, like soup beans and cornbread. Deloras was such a sweet, gentle, loving woman. She will be great###imported-begin###TinaRobinson###imported-end###

“ Mamaw... first I want to thank you soooooo much for all that you have done for me and the love you gave me and prayers you prayed for me. You truly were the model example of what a woman should be like. I have never met anyone that was as sweet as you..##imported-begin##AngelaBingham##imported-end##

“ I didn't personally know Mrs. Rose myself, but I almost feel as if I did, because Angie spoke so highly of her and how she was the sweetest person she ever met. So, through Angie's stories, I feel as if I knew her. My prayers are with your families.##imported-
