Tribute Wall

“ Dewey was my former father-in-law. I will always remember the kindness that Dewey and Dorothy showed me while I was part of the family. I will be forever grateful of the love and care Dewey showed my son, Daniel. Dewey was one of those people who never met a stranger. Once you met Dewey he became your friend. I will treasure the time I got to spend with him and I'll always remember the stories he shared and the sayings he taught me. The world is a little sadder and more empty without Dewey Reeves in it. My love and deepest sympathy goes out to the family. He was a wonderful daddy, granddaddy, great granddaddy uncle, brother, husband and friend. With deep respect, later today, I will drink a toast to Dewey at exactly "beer thirty"(one of his sayings I will never forget). Dewey, I miss you already. Ed Schoenberg

“ I met Dewey in 1975 when I started working for him doing land surveying. He was quite busy back then working bout everyday after work & Saturdays & employeed many guys over the years. We used a 100' chain & plum bobs to measure the distances & a K&E transit for angles back then. It was fun & I learned a great deal from Dewey over 30 years I helped him on & off. He loved a good cold beer & A&C cigars, we had sum great times & I consider it an honor to have known him.
