

Dixon Russell Ledford

August 18, 2000 - May 5, 2023

Funeral services for Dixon R. Ledford, 22, will be held 12 noon, Tuesday, May 16, 2023, at Forks of Elkhorn Baptist Church. Visitation will be held Monday evening, May 15, from 4:00 to 8:00 p.m and Tuesday 11 a.m. until service time at the church. Dixon died unexpectedly on Friday.

Dixon was known by many as a loyal friend, son, and brother with an ability to be attentive and relate to those of any age or background. While a student at Franklin County high school, Dixon was a standout student athlete, two year captain of the football team, and honor student, always striving for his best. All those who knew him remember his ability and willingness to help others and give his all to even the smallest of tasks or jobs. Dixon was a giver and a lover to those within his circle. A person who cared less for his own accolades than he did for those whom he loved, worked for, or respected.

Dixon was a supportive brother and son, Cheering his siblings, parents, and friends in their sports, jobs, and daily life. Dixon was an avid hunter and had a knack for finding the big buck. Friends will remember that Dixon loved a good time and was the life of any party. He was passionate about the pursuit of a career in the Bourbon and restaurant business. Dixon had carved out a reputation of hard work, people skills, and knowledge of his craft. Friends and family will sorely miss Dixon, but we will find comfort in the proud and fun moments we shared with him and the lasting impact he left behind.

Dixon is survived by his mother Kristy Schaffer (Bart), father, Dennis Ledford (Meredith) both of Frankfort; brothers Peyton Ledford, Preston Schaffer; sister

Avery Sanford; grandmothers Barbara Ledford Frankfort and Jeannine Schaffer, Louisville. Preceded by Maternal grandparents, Fred and Carol Johnson and Paternal Grandfather Gordon Ledford. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society. LeCompte Johnson Taylor is handling arrangements.
