“ Words cannot tell you how sorry I am of the passing of your mother, Dorcas. She became one of my best friends when I lived on Briar Cliff.

Dorcas was one of a kind. She was the type that would help you and stand by you when you were down and out.###imported-begin##CatherineHodges###imported-end##

“ I can't even tell you when Dorcus and i first started working together in Medicaid. She was a loyal friend and a dedicated employee. We both loved to cook (and eat) and often shared recipes. When her family had a reunion in Frankfort I made rhubarb pie##imported-begin##PeggyThompson##imported-end##
