“ Dear Reeves Family,

We are so sorry to hear of the passing of Aunt Dorothy. Our thoughts and prayers are with you.

This makes us remember the times that all of us (Joe Jr, Ruth, Peach, Ernest & Sarah) would come to Frankfort to see you all - it was always a fun time.

All 5 of the Robinson Children are now together - I can just hear them all talking and laughing about all of the things they did when they were young. May God Bless them all.

Love,

Peach, Ernest and Sarah

“ Loving thoughts to all the family at this time of your loss. As I just learned moments ago of the service I'm unable to be there for condolences. I will always remember my sweet neighbor, hear her wonderful laughter and feel her wrap around your body hug. Love to you all, Sandra Hall Carlton

“ I have known and adored Dewey and Dorothy Reeves for over twenty years. What I remember most and loved was her laughter. Dewey telling the stories and her laughing. It breaks my heart to hear of her passing. To Dewey and the rest of the family I offer prayers and condolences and I know what a hard loss this is. --Pam Conley
