“ To Edie's family:
I am sorry that I will be unable to attend the service today. But just wanted to let the family know that you are in my thoughts and prayers. And I will always cherish all the good times I shared with Edie and her family. May God provide your family with peace and comfort in this difficult time.

“ I am so sorry to hear of Edith's passing. My condolences to her family. I haven't seen her in many years but we were close in our teen years as I grew up around all her family. We shared many fun times together. She always had a fun little smile and could always make me laugh. We ended up going to rival high schools but still always went to the ball games together and hung out. Rest in Peace Edie. And may peace be with your entire family.

“ Edie will be missed so much. She was so good to my son and always took time to talk and smile with others. The first time I talked to Edie was when I came in from work 3 years ago. My son Chris had visited with her and Steve quite often. I said hello and told her I was Chris's mom. She just smiled and said I am so sorry I thought you were his girlfriend. We both laughed so hard. That was the beginning of an amazing friendship. When she told me she had cancer I told her I would fight right along with her. She fought hard. The other day I went to visit, she was on couch enjoying pancakes that Steve had made her. She gave me a hug and told me she loved me and smiled. Her smile will live in my heart forever. She is one of the many amazing blessings that God brought into my heart. She will be dearly missed. Rest in peace sweet angel.
