“ The first time I met you, you still loved your pacifier. You hid behind mom or dad, while teasing me with that precious smile, but wouldn't let me get a hug. As time went on, we grew closer. Nephew, you will always have a special place in my heart and will never be forgotten! I love you Eddie Devers. ❤️

Ed, a brother and brother-in-law that we longed for, for a lifetime..... We loved the time we shared together and memories that were made, even though it was cut too short. Thank you for all you did to welcome us into your life, including all the amazing meals you made, it was truly delicious. We will straight up cherish our time we had with you!!!!..... Till we see each other again in our forever home... We Love You!!!*

“ My heart completely shattered on Thursday when I received the news of your passing. So many childhood memories and now you're my guardian angel. I can still hear your laugh and see that gorgeous smile. Now, you are with all of our other guardian angels. Please tell my dad, your dad, uncle Norman, and uncle Johnny that I love them and give them a huge squeeze from me. Can't wait to see you all again someday. Love you so much cousin Eddy.

“ Words can't express how saddened I am seeing you go. You were such a kind loving good hearted man, who never missed the opportunity to cook your favorite dishes for your loved ones. From a small child you were the fun uncle, the one who always brought a smile to every occasion. I'll never forget when you over fed me doughnuts on the way to baseball practice one early Saturday morning when I was about 8. In your final days I asked if you remembered that day and the mess those doughnuts made. As your smile emerged I knew that it was a cherished memory for you as well. I'm a time when every word hurt to mutter, you reminded me that I would always be your favorite niece. We had the opportunity to share one last milkshake together and I kissed your forehead goodbye. Rest easy Uncle Eddy as well the path before you will be so much easier. I love you and will forever be grateful for our memories together.
