

Garland M Cook

August 17, 1937 - March 16, 2026

Garland M. Cook, 88, went to be with the Lord and family on Monday, March 16, 2026, at Maple Grove Senior Living in Shelbyville. Born on August 17, 1937, in Mount Eden, he was the son of the late Clarence Daily and Christine McGaughey Cook.

Marine Pfc. Garland M. Cook, after training at Camp Lejeune, North Carolina, served with the Northeastern Atlantic and Mediterranean Battalion of the Sixth Fleet. His travels with his Marine Battalion led him to the French Riviera, Valencia, Spain, and Leghorn, Italy, among other service locations.

Besides his parents, Garland was preceded in death by his brothers, Donald L. Cook and Davis Cook of Shelbyville, KY.

His survivors include his sister, Wilma Waford Carpenter of Shelbyville, his nephews: Richard Lee Cook of Shelbyville, Clarence J. Cook (Trudy) of Palatka, Florida, Keith D. Waford (wife Lisa) of Shelbyville; and his nieces: LeAnn Carey (husband Ricky) of Shelbyville, Phyllis Metts Allen (husband Howard) of Middlesboro, KY.

Arrangements are in the care of LeCompte Johnson Taylor Funeral Home of Frankfort, KY. A private service will be performed by family members. God Bless Garland M. Cook, his family, and The United State of America.
