

George Dean

February 15, 2012

George Dean, Jr., 88, Frankfort, passed away Wednesday, at Frankfort Regional Medical Center.

He was born in Frankfort and remained a life long resident. He was the son of the late Mattie Finn and George Dean, Sr. George was a US Army veteran stationed in the Pacific Theater during World War II. He was employed at National Distillers for forty-two years and was a self-employed heating and air conditioner contractor.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Velinta Dean; son, Gary Dean; sister, Evelyn Mullikin and brother, Richard Dean.

Survivors include his daughter, Donna Morris, Frankfort; step- daughter, Catherine (Tim) Hayden, Lexington; niece, Rosemary (Kenneth) Harp, Frankfort; and nephew, William (Nedra) Clark, Lexington; six grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

A gathering of family, friends and neighbors to celebrate George's life will take place 11 a.m. Friday, February 24, at New Union Christian Church, Old Frankfort Pike, Midway. LeCompte-Johnson-Taylor Funeral Home is handling the arrangements.

Tribute Wall

“ Nothing but fond memories when I was a child spending time with the Dean family.##imported-begin##VictoriaSchreier##imported-end##

January 01, 1753 at 12:00 AM

“ Dear Donna and Family:

We are so saddened to hear about the passing of your dad.

*We had the pleasure of having coffee with him
on many mornings at White Castle. He was such a witty person and such a joy to talk with about life in##imported-begin##Sam & CarolynMcElroy##imported-end##*

January 01, 1753 at 12:00 AM