“ I was devastated to hear of George's passing. In the years that I have known him, I found him to be a man of character, integrity and faith. The both of us were blessed to share four beautiful granddaughters together and I will always remember the pride and the love that he had for them and for David and Julia as well. George is well deserving of all the accolades and praises he will receive during this time and the world is a better place because he passed this way. George was loved, his life made a difference and he will be missed. My life is so much better today because George was a part of i, and as for memories, I will always treasure the picture that was made of George, David and me when Ava was born!
