“ I am going to miss his reasoned and considered conversations. Uncle Hargis was a hard working family man who passed on his sense of right and wrong to his children, grand children and great grandchildren. Best memory - Uncle Hargis and my dad building an engine for a '53 Chevy sedan in our basement and test starting it in the basement!!!! Mom and Aunt Louise were not thrilled about all that noise and exhaust in the house!!! Still not sure how they got that engine out of the basement
