“ Hello. I came across this obituary and the news of Mrs. Rice passing, coincidentally as I attended the funeral of a friend today at LeCompte Johnson. In 2005, I purchased the property in waddy that was called Ralph and Hattie Rice Farm so their names have long been familiar to me. I have always been interested in learning more about them and the history of the farm and the former owners, but until now didn't have any information. I was wondering if I could use this as an Avenue to connecting with any friend or family member who may be able to share with me. My name is Jennifer Wilson and I may be reached any time at my business in Frankfort, Wilson Nurseries 502.223.1488. I am very sorry for this loss and would love to know more about Hattie to share her story with neighbors and future owners of the land that was once hers. Thanks so much in advance.

“ Hattie was the kindest person ever. Always had a smile and appreciated our visits, cards, and phone calls. Enjoyed many earlier days with her at church and missed her presence once she was unable to be there. Rest in Peace my Friend.

“ Mrs. Hattie was a very special woman. Kind and caring and always greeted me with a smile. My Uncle Johh Webster was one of her brothers and me being Uncle Johhny's niece, brought me and Mrs. Hattie together many times. She was friends with my Mom and Dad and they thought the world of her. I send my sincere condolences to her brother and sister and all the family.
