“ I knew Jim through working for the City of Lawrenceburg. We shared an office together, as I was the Tax Collector. He and I would talk all day. He would give me advice in the love area as well as with my kids. They loved Mr. Grider. I never dulled at any conversations and listened wisely. I loved to hear about his adventures, Family, life stories. We went through some times and made each one easier to deal with. Jim had a wonderful personality and great sense of humor. We laughed and everyone wondered how two people so different got along so well. We shared secrets, too.

I remember Mr. Shirley walking in to pay her taxes. Jim turned into a teenage boy. She peaked his interest. It was love at first sight. We laughed about that forever. We had more to talk about.

Jim Grider made a great impression on me and my kids. I think God for letting me borrow him at the time I needed him in my life. He will forever hold a place in my heart.

“ Uncle Jimmy was so loved by anyone who knew him. He loved his mama like no other. He was her baby. I loved being at Grandma Myrt's at lunch time during a work week. Uncle Jimmy would be there, and she always looked forward to seeing him. There was so much laughter and silliness going on. He truly made her day. Those days will never be forgotten. So when I think about Uncle Jimmy, I am thinking about my grandma, too. I will forever love them.
