Jamie was born on November 7, 1937, in Frankfort about one mile from where he was currently residing. He was always very proud of that fact. He loved his community and family very deeply.

He proudly served in the United States Army from 1960-1966. He worked at G.E. Appliance Park in Louisville where he retired after almost 30 years. After retirement he went to work for Fred's Fast Freight; A job he loved because he got paid to “see the beautiful countryside”. He was a lifelong farmer and an avid flower garden grower. He loved tending to his yard and mowing around the church. His yard was almost always in full bloom when the weather would allow.

His favorite pastime besides mowing and spending time with family, was playing Bingo in Frankfort and Lawrenceburg. He was often referred to as “Lucky” and “Pops”.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations can be made to Lebanon Baptist Church, 2101 Lebanon Rd, Bagdad, Ky 40003 and/or Franklin Co. Humane Society, 100 Companion Pl, Frankfort, Ky 40601.

“ What I remember about Jamie is when we lived in the little red house and Jamie came to see us and he brought me a panda teddy bear, I was so excited, it was my first teddy bear, I loved that teddy bear . Jamie was in charge of Lebanon choir for Sunday service, could Jamie sing , beautiful voice. Jamie could cut tobacco faster than anyone I ever seen , raise awesome gardens and he always shared what he grew to his siblings. Jamie was a good Christian man and I loved him . Debbie Renfro.
