

James Stewart Morris

September 13, 1940 - March 27, 2023

James Stewart Morris, 82, Frankfort, died Monday, March 27 at his home after a long illness.

A Frankfort native, he was the son of the late Glenn Elizabeth Stringer and Stewart Coleman Morris. Jim was a member of the first graduating class at Franklin County High School. After graduating from the University of Kentucky in 1970 with a Bachelor of Science in Mechanical Engineering, he worked and eventually owned W.M.B. Engineers in Lexington Kentucky where he was employed for over 42 years. He enjoyed socializing with his friends and former Franklin County High classmates, building, doing family history, collecting vintage cars, and spending time with those he loved.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by a brother, David McNeil Morris. Survivors include his wife, Michele Levie Morris; sons, Todd (Heather) Morris, David J. Morris, and Kris (Lainie Cleveland) Maynard; daughter, Julie (Stewart) Willis; sister, Nancy Kay (Doug) Fox; grandchildren, Juanita Brook Snow, Makayla Morris, Dylan Vance, Meredith, Keith and Kayelynn Travis, Trey and Ally Willis, Sean and Ryan Maynard, Ryland Cleveland, Tyler Atkinson, and great grandsons, Cade Willis & Roman Thompson.

Funeral service will be held at 1:00pm, Friday, March 31, at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, 101 Bogie Lee Ave., Frankfort with interment in the Frankfort Cemetery.

Visitation will be Thursday evening, 5:00 -7:00pm at LeCompte Johnson Taylor Funeral Home.

“ Not only was Jim the best bbq ribs chef that I ever had the pleasure of dining at his garden party, he was generous with his time and knowledge as a giver of service. I am so thankful for the time that he was the engineering leader of a priesthood service project that repaired a sister member's plumbing from her home's crawl space! I consider him a hero!
