“ My condolence to CWO Gene's family. Gene, a man of superb character who truly loved his family. An outstanding soldier. A Patriot. The kind of friend that every person dreams of having. A dedicated public servant. Gene was an integral member of my Internal Review and Audit team during a most challenging period when the Army was upgrading and professionalizing the process of personal and organizational Accountability. May Gods hand of comfort and strength be with his beloved family. Colonel(Ret) Paul Ryan, United States Property and Fiscal Officer for Kentucky, 1983-1994.

I just heard about Gene passing today. He was my supervisor while we were in the Guard together in Louisville Kentucky in the eighties. He was one great guy and taught me a lot.
