“ Kenny was my boss early in my career. He was a very instructive, kind and gentle individual. My heart goes out to his family. May God hold each one of you in the palm of his hand. I'm sorry I didn't get to his service. I was out of the state and didn't read about his passing until today, November12.

God Bless,

“ I didn't know Kenneth very well but My husband and I bought our first home from Kenneth and Mary, on Springhill Drive in 1989. They were both very nice people. Kenneth came back a few times to pick up mail. He was so nice. I started working in Department of Revenue a month after we moved in and found out Kenneth was a director in Revenue.
