“ Kim you touched our hearts as a child when you were in Johnny's Sunday school class. He always said you had a sweet spirit and sweet smile. As a young mom you put Heather into my care. She and Joshua played many a day laughing and getting into silly stuff. My heart aches you had to leave so soon. Your sprit was a fighter but you body was ravaged by that horrible disease that robbed you of your life. You got to see that sweet granddaughter grow and laugh loving her what time you had with her. She sure was blessed with that. Until we meet again we love you always.
