“ I am so sad to learn of Larry's passing. I met Larry in about 1979. He was my climbing and hiking partner through the mid-80's. We spent many weekend adventures together in Red River Gorge, the Smokies or anywhere we could climb a rock or hike a trail. He had a tremendous influence on my life, and I will never forget him and his constant ear-to-ear smile. My prayers and condolences to his family.

“ I first met Larry when I moved to Frankfort more than 30 years ago. We worked together for a while, played some music and laughed a lot. He was always positive and a great guy to work with. I'm very sorry for your loss.
