“Laura Faris and her family were neighbors of ours when Nathan, Flip and Andy were kids. We played basketball, football and baseball in their back yard and the adjoining Sacre family’s back yard. Mrs. Faris was always in her garden, working. I never saw her when she wasn’t quick with a smile. She was always so nice. As I grew up, they’d moved out on Devil’s Hollow Rd. in a farm. I lamented once at the library of my trouble finding a place to hunt and she replied, “That’s because you haven’t asked the right person!” and offered to allow me to hunt there. Was always kind and gracious and I hate to see her leave her family. I’m sure she’s joined her eldest son, Nathan and others who’ve gone on before. God bless your soul, Mrs. Faris!”

“ What a beautiful soul has passed from our midst. EVERY time I saw Laura, that fabulous, welcoming smile and laughter of hers made me feel so very special. She inspired me to become more positive, joyful in my own life. I am blessed and honored to have known her. While we all will miss her greatly, I am comforted in knowing that her Faith is now Sight. Our deepest sympathy to Oran and Family, Angie Scott and family

“ Carolyn & I have known Laura Lee and Oran for years. We were fellow members of Frankfort First Baptist Church on St Clair. They were among the first policy holders for Long-term Care insurance that I signed up.

Laura Faris (Mrs. Faris to me) was always very good to me. I met them at church at an early age. I spent many afternoons and nights at their house. I am certain that Nathan is happy to have his mother with him now.
She was a wonderful woman.
