

Lewis Edward Crump, Sr.

November 8, 1952 - January 23, 2009

Lewis Edward Crump, Sr.

Frankfort. Lewis Edward Crump, Sr., 56, Tracy Lane, died Friday night at his home. He was a native of Harrison County, KY. He was a machinist and truck driver for Capital City Tool.

Mr. Crump was the son of William Elgin Crump, Sadieville, and Elizabeth "Betty" Bryant Miller, Sorrento, FL. He was a member of Silas Baptist Church in Bourbon County.

In addition to his parents, Mr. Crump is survived by his wife, Mariam W. Crump, Frankfort; two sons, Lewis Edward Crump, Jr., Cynthiana, and Christopher Scott Crump, Georgetown; one daughter, Tina Tooker, Frankfort; stepson, David Trent, Crossville, TN; three brothers, William Elgin Crump, Jr., Connersville, David Wayne Crump, Sorrento, FL, Terry Lee Crump, Cynthiana; two sisters, Gladys Maria Karrh, Campbellsville, and Rita Jean Miller, Eustis, FL.

There will be no visitation or service at this time. A memorial service will be held at a later date.

Tribute Wall

“ My wife and I am so sorry for the lose of Lewis. I will miss him and Loved him very much. Bye Uncle Louie suffer no more. Love, Nickie##imported-begin##Nick & RachelWarmouth##imported-end##

January 01, 1753 at 12:00 AM

“ Louie was a precious Brother to me and will be missed until we meet again in Heaven. He was my Comedian and he would help anyone at anytime. Rest in Peace Sweet Brother Louie.

Your Sis##imported-begin##GladysKarrh##imported-end##

January 01, 1753 at 12:00 AM