Lucy Ware Chapman

Frankfort. Lucy Ware Chapman, 99, died Aug. 13 at her daughter's home. Visitation will be from 4-6pm at the First Baptist Church, St. Clair St., Frankfort, on Monday August 17, 2009 with the service following at 6:00pm at the church. A light meal will be served after the service. Burial will be in the Lexington Cemetery, Lexington, on Tuesday at 10:00am. Dr. David Hinson will officiate.

She was born November 16, 1909, in Woodford County, KY and grew up in Lexington and Eastern Fayette County. She graduated from University High, in Lexington, and studied at U.K. where she received a B.A. degree in English and Library Science and a M.A. degree in Library Science. While at UK, she was a member of Chi Omega Sorority. She was the only daughter of the late Krille Hamilton Ware and Lucy Ferguson Coons Ware, and was married to the late Morris W. Chapman on June 20, 1935. Two brothers preceded her in death, Lester and Clifton Ware of Lexington, KY.

She was a librarian at Centre College, Danville, and later Director of Information and Loan in the KY Dept. of Libraries and Archives, Frankfort, until her retirement in 1974.

She was a long-term member of the Pollyanna Sunday School Class at First Baptist Church. She was a charter member of the KY Genealogical Society, a member of the KY Historical Society, Susannah Hart Shelby Chapter of the DAR, and the Women's Club of Frankfort. She had a lifelong interest in genealogy and was an avid crossword puzzle enthusiast.

She is survived by a daughter, Nancy C. Watkins (Dick), Frankfort; granddaughters, Beth W. McLemore (Kent), Suffolk, VA, and Ginger M. Watkins, Lexington, and great granddaughters, Hannah and Chloe Jeffers.

Pallbearers are Lester Carroll Ware, Carroll Darnaby Ware, Mark Ware, Robert Chapman, David Nicol Chapman, Richard Chapman, and Gordon Rodgers III. Honorary pallbearers are Emma Quire, Jewel Durrett, Gene Rose, Pat King and members of the Pollyanna Sunday School Class.

Memorials are suggested to Mission Frankfort of First Baptist Church, 201 St. Clair St, Frankfort or Hospice of the Bluegrass.

“ I am one of Lucy's granddaughters, and I'm certain that I wouldn't have emotionally recovered from the divorce from the father of my twins if it hadn't been for her patient listening, prayer, and encouragement. I will forever be thankful, Granny Lucy :) :) :)
