

Marjorie Armistead

March 20, 1924 - January 6, 2016

Marjorie “Margie” Frances Tuggle Armistead, 91, died Jan. 6th as the result of a fall in her home in Ashwood Place where she’d lived for four years. Her favorite teams were the Wildcats and the 101st Airborne Division. Several family members have attended UK and most of her professional career was as a civilian employee at Fort Campbell. Margie was born March 20, 1924 in Trigg County to Georgianna Patterson and Malcolm Ural Tuggle. Most of her life was spent in Christian County. Margie had survived the loss of her parents, her husband, Joseph Garner Armistead of Pembroke, her daughter, Marjorie Elizabeth Armistead Henderson of Hopkinsville, her granddaughter, Amy Renee Farmer of Frankfort, and six of her nine younger siblings. She is survived by her son, Joseph Garner Armistead, Jr. of Frankfort, her grandsons, Evan Garner Henderson of Hopkinsville, Craig Richard Farmer of Lexington, and Bret Joseph Henderson of Hopkinsville, her great-grandson, Jackson Richard Farmer, her great-granddaughter, Madeline Louise Farmer, and three younger siblings. A celebration in her memory will be held at Ashwood Place from 1:00 to 2:00 Saturday. In lieu of flowers, contributions to Hospice of the Bluegrass will be appreciated. (Information can be found at hospicebg.org.)

Not for sure why but we just found out today. My sister Cindy (Ashwood Place) My mother and I will miss seeing Margie. She was a sweet lady and we had dinner with her one night in the dining room. She would always wave to us when we seen her..her little eyes would just light up.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Mrs. Armistead was such a joy to visit with when she came in to her hair appointments with me. She was such an independent person and always wanted to try and do everything on her own. I think she finally let me "win" the game of taking care of her while she was in my chair. Margie wouldn't let just anyone tell her what to do and I loved her fighting spirit. I would always address her as Mrs. Armistead until she told me flat out, "You CAN call me Margie you know"? I loved her even more after that. She will be missed deeply.
