“ Ebby was one very special lady. She was just a teenager when she took care of my Dad before he passed. She had no medical training but she jumped right in there and done as needed. Then when Garry was killed in the truck accident, she had a rough time but with twins she made it. May God Bless her and give her peace. Ebby was my youngest anut. There is one thing you can say about all of Charlie and Stella O'Nan, that all of their children were hard workers. I ask for your prayers for the family and help them get through this hard time We lost another good one.
