“ So very sorry for your great loss. Your loved one and I went to high school together many years ago. We were friends and I always cared for her. She was always the “quiet” one Burt always beautiful inside and out. May our Great Hod send peace and comfort to each of you. ”

Mom had really been struggling since Thanksgiving last year. So much that we were sure we would not be able to be together Christmas Day. The Lord stepped in and touched mom Christmas Eve. She was very much with us and happy for our last Christmas. Oh Lord How Great Thou Are.
