

Mary Allison Henson

March 14, 1983 - October 11, 2015

A Celebration of Life for Mary Allison Henson, 32 will be 6:00 p.m., Friday at LeCompte Johnson Taylor Funeral Home. Chase Nichols will officiate.

Visitation will be 4:00 – 6:00 p.m., at the funeral home, Friday.

Allison enjoyed all things science, especially anthropology and geology. This carried over into many hiking and camping trips, going to the Red River Gorge, enjoying turtles and watching the changing of the seasons especially winter when her and her mom could go sledding. When she was younger, she loved fishing and became very good at it. Allison also enjoyed playing Legend of Zelda, cheering on Chef Ramsey and watching movies, particularly if that movie was, The Princess Bride. She loved the world of Harry Potter. Allison was a member and teacher of the Crow Creek Lakota Tribe in South Dakota and always looked forward to coming home to the family farm. Never far from Allison's side was her beloved St. Bernard, Quinn. Mainly, Allison will always be remembered for encouraging others and making people smile.

Survivors include her husband, Jed Hutcheson, Frankfort; parents, Ed and BeLinda Lewis Henson, Frankfort; and sister, Sarah Henson, Frankfort.

You may share memories and leave condolences on her tribute wall at www.ljtfuneralhome.com.

“ Dear Ed and Belinda: Cheryl and I were deeply grieved when we received word of your great loss. Immediately our minds went back through the years to the good times shared with you and your precious children. We especially recall Allison as a beautiful young girl full of life and promise. Reading the tributes to her reminds us that the greatest value in life is not length but fullness; for it is in fullness that life attains its greatest worth. It is obvious from the celebration of her life that Allison filled her days with extraordinary wonderment, exploration, service, and appreciation for the supreme awe of her natural surroundings. Such personal depth is a blessed affirmation of her strength of person and the beauty of grace expressed. While her life was not a long one, it was a full one. That is far more than can be said of many who walk the earth far longer. Please know that Cheryl and I hold you in our hearts. We extend to you our prayers and deepest sympathies. May the God of all comfort give you strength until, once more, you are reunited with your precious daughter.

“ Finding the words to say when a family experiences the death of their child no matter how old the child is, is difficult. When the "family" is family, it is even more difficult. I always told people if I could of hand picked a bride for Jed, I couldn't have picked one better. Allison was fun, loving, compassionate and oh so very intelligent. Allison's ability to empathize with others was such a wonderful quality among the many she has. Our hearts our hurting and is still unbelievable that she is gone. Haven't been able to wrap our minds and hearts around it We will try to do as Belinda encourages and think of the beautiful memories we have and we do have so many. We love Allison and she will always be in our hearts and forever remembered.

“ My heart goes out to the Henson family and her husband Jed. I knew Allison in school and was proud to call her a friend. She was such a joy to know and was always full of life. I tried to stay in touch with her the best I could after high school was over. We always had good conversations and made each other laugh. Jed was also a good friend in school and I was happy to hear when they first got together and then ending up marrying each other. She will terribly be missed! Gone too soon but will never be forgotten! My thoughts and prayers are with the Henson family and Jed. May God comfort you in this difficult time.

“ Dear Ed and Family,

I was so saddened to learn of the loss of your beautiful daughter Allison. I called Henry (Curtis) when I heard, and I know he will be in touch as well. As a member of the Kentucky Parks family, we all have this "family" connection. I will always cherish my days in Parks when I knew Sarah and heard news about Allison. Please know you are in my thoughts and prayers.

Warmly

“ *Ed and Belinda,
I am so very sorry. The despair and overwhelming sadness that accompanies the loss of a child is indescribable. It can't be imagined or explained-- it just hurts. Unbelievable as it seems , we survive and we hold fast to the promise that we will be with them again. My most sincere sympathy for you, Sarah and Clara.*

“ If it hadn't been for Allison, I may not be sitting where I am today. She convinced me not to quit NKU, when she followed me out of the technology class we had together. I honestly owe part of my career to her. I'm not sure if she knew that or not. I was more of a shadow friend, than a real friend to her. I regret that. She was a light, an inspiration, and now an angel. I hope she found the comfort she so desperately wanted in life. My thoughts and prayers are with her family and those that were close to her.

“ "Telling the Bees"

*"Before them, under the garden wall,
Forward and back,
Went drearily singing the chore-girl small,
Draping each hive with a shred of black.*

*Trembling, I listened: The summer sun
Had the chill of snow;
For I knew she was telling the bees of one
Gone on the journey we all must go.*

*Stay at home, pretty bees, fly not hence!
Mistress Mary is ...gone"*

“ I knew Allison from the theater. We were all so young and had no idea how great we had it together. Allison was always easy going and ready to smile. Her ease made her so likable and fun-loving. She was someone I could count on. May her light forever shine.

“ I met Allison when I worked with her mom; Allison was a young girl at the time.....always laughing and smiling. When she was a college student, I recruited her to assist in leading a regional youth council for teens with behavioral health challenges. This position led to a full time position supporting teens to find their voice and to advocate. During this time, I got to know Allison. She was strong, bright, funny and good. I don't just mean "good" as "nice." I mean "good" as in she had one of the most caring hearts I had ever met.

During high school, Allison also worked at the local movie theater. My brother, "Rick the Cop" often worked security there. Allison shared with me many times about their connection and how my brother was always there to give her fatherly advice. I know that Allison is in heaven with my brother "Rick the Cop" and she is smiling!

Carol Cecil - October 13, 2015 at 03:25 AM

Rick the Cop was the best guy in the world. I know he and Allison are definitely hanging out. Talking about the world.

“ Our prayers and condolences to the Henson Family. I will always cherish the memories of middle school and high school, of our first semester if college at NKU and traveling back and forth on the weekends, of Allison taking me to my very first renaissance fair, and giving her the best gift I could ever give in Quinn. I love you my friend and I will miss you greatly.
